18 Grams of Love (PG)

How much does your love weigh? When best friends Zihua and Ah Hui suspect their wives of cheating, they hatch a plan to 'test' their wives by having the other write a love letter to the other's wife. But as their lonely wives start to respond to the love letters that they received, the two men are left in a fix of what to do.

When Hainan Meets Teochew (NC16)

Hainanese men are said to make the best husbands, while Teochew wives are said to be the prettiest. In this film, a lost bra brings two strangers together and potential romance sparks.

They seem like a perfect match – as one is a 'manly' Hainanese and the other is a 'womanly' Teochew. However, the Hainanese is a woman, while the Teochew is a man. Can the two still be together?

cin(T)a (NC16)

Cina and Annisa love God, and God loves them both. But Cina and Annisa cannot love each other, because they call God by different names.

The movie cin(T)a revolves around Cina, a spirited 18 year old college freshman, Annisa, a 24 year old senior whose fame and beauty have left her lonely, and (T), the most unpredictable character everyone calls "God", but nobody really knows who he... or she is.

The Negative Effect (EX)

Obsessed with film photography in today's digital age, 40 young photographers travel to the historic city of Penang to organise a lo-fi camera exhibition. In a foreign city with zero funding and zero publicity for the event, will their dream exhibition be a success?
